This Agreement is entered into between Elythra Edufyi Tech Solutions Pvt Ltd (the "Company") and the individual identified in the signature section (the "Recipient"). It governs confidential information accessed or received in connection with employment, internship, consultancy, project work or other engagement.

1. Purpose

The Recipient may access proprietary information relating to the Company's AI tools, software, websites, products, customers, operations and future projects. The purpose of this Agreement is to protect that information from unauthorized use or disclosure.

2. Confidential Information

- AI products, models, workflows, prompts, system instructions, evaluation methods, automation logic and unreleased features.
- Source code, object code, scripts, APIs, SDKs, algorithms, databases, architecture, repositories, deployment and DevOps information.
- Website and application designs, UI/UX, wireframes, prototypes, product roadmaps and technical documentation.
- Training data, datasets, analytics, research, internal reports and other non-public data.
- Customer, student, client, vendor, partner, lead and employee information.

- Business plans, pricing, financial information, sales data, marketing strategies, investment/funding discussions and commercial terms.
- Passwords, API keys, access tokens, cloud credentials, security configurations and internal system access information.
- Any other non-public information that a reasonable person would understand to be confidential.

3. Confidentiality Obligations

- Use Confidential Information only for authorized Company work.
- Do not disclose Confidential Information to any unauthorized person or organization.
- Do not copy, download, transfer, publish, sell, license or distribute Confidential Information except as required for authorized work.
- Do not use Confidential Information for personal projects, outside employment, another business or any competing or unrelated purpose.
- Immediately report suspected loss, unauthorized access, disclosure, theft or compromise.

4. Source Code, Repositories and Credentials

Company repositories, branches, commits, source code, documentation, credentials and technical systems are confidential. The Recipient must not upload Company material to personal repositories, public repositories, personal cloud storage or other unauthorized locations.

5. Use of AI and External Platforms

AI tools may be used for Company work only in accordance with Company authorization and the IT, Cybersecurity & AI Usage Policy. Confidential source code, credentials, client/student data, internal documents, unreleased product information and other restricted information must not be entered into an external AI service unless expressly approved and appropriately protected.

6. Personal Devices

The Recipient may use a personal laptop for Company work. Company information stored or accessed on the device remains Company information. The Recipient must use reasonable security controls, keep operating systems and security software updated, use device locking and strong authentication, and prevent access by family members or other unauthorized persons.

7. Customer and Personal Data

Customer, student, employee and other personal information shall be handled only for legitimate Company purposes and in accordance with applicable law and Company policies.

8. Return and Deletion

On request or when the engagement ends, the Recipient must return Company property and, subject to lawful retention requirements, delete unauthorized copies of Company information from personal devices, accounts and storage locations and cooperate with reasonable verification procedures.

9. Required or Protected Disclosures

Nothing in this Agreement prevents a disclosure required by law or a disclosure protected by applicable law. Where legally permitted, the Recipient should provide the Company reasonable prior notice of a compulsory disclosure.

10. Exclusions

Confidential Information does not include information that is lawfully public without breach, was lawfully known before disclosure, was independently developed without use of Company Confidential Information, or must lawfully be disclosed.

11. Duration

This Agreement begins on the Effective Date. Confidentiality obligations continue after the engagement ends for so long as the relevant information remains confidential and is not lawfully public.

12. Breach and Remedies

Unauthorized disclosure or misuse may result in disciplinary or contractual action and any other remedies available under applicable law. The Company may seek appropriate relief to protect its confidential information and intellectual property.

13. No Unauthorized Representation

The Recipient has no authority to represent that they own, control, license or may disclose Company technology, products, data or intellectual property unless expressly authorized.

14. Governing Law and Jurisdiction

This Agreement shall be governed by the laws applicable in India. Subject to applicable law, disputes shall be subject to the competent courts having jurisdiction at Bengaluru, Karnataka.

15. Severability and Entire Agreement

If any provision is invalid or unenforceable, the remaining provisions continue to the extent permitted by law. This Agreement should be read together with the applicable appointment, consultancy, internship and Company policy documents.
