Effective Date	28/09/2026

This Agreement governs ownership, protection and documentation of work product created for or in the course of the Recipient's engagement with the Company.

1. Scope

This Agreement applies to work created within the scope of assigned duties, specifically commissioned Company projects, or using substantial Company Confidential Information or resources, subject to applicable law.

2. Company Work Product

- Software, source code, scripts, applications, websites and mobile applications.
- AI tools, agents, workflows, prompts, system instructions, evaluation frameworks and automation systems.
- Algorithms, technical solutions, architectures, APIs, integrations and database structures.
- UI/UX designs, wireframes, graphics, product specifications and prototypes.
- Documentation, reports, training materials, presentations, manuals and technical notes.
- Research, analyses, datasets and other materials created specifically for Company projects.
- Improvements, modifications, extensions, fixes and derivative work relating to Company products or projects.

3. Ownership and Assignment

To the extent permitted by applicable law, the Recipient agrees that rights in Company Work Product created in the course of the engagement or specifically commissioned for Company projects shall belong to the Company, and the Recipient shall execute reasonable documents necessary to record, perfect or protect those rights.

4. Further Assurances

The Recipient shall reasonably cooperate during and after the engagement, at the Company's reasonable request, in signing documents and taking lawful steps needed to establish or protect the Company's rights in Company Work Product.

5. Moral Rights and Attribution

To the extent permitted by applicable law, the Recipient agrees to cooperate with reasonable Company requests concerning attribution, modification, publication and protection of Company Work Product. Nothing in this clause waives rights that cannot lawfully be waived.

6. Pre-Existing Materials

The Recipient shall disclose in writing any material pre-existing code, libraries, designs, inventions or other intellectual property that the Recipient proposes to incorporate into Company Work Product. The Recipient shall not knowingly incorporate third-party material in breach of a license or obligation.

7. Open-Source and Third-Party Materials

No open-source or third-party code, model, dataset, content or software with licensing terms that could materially restrict Company use, disclosure or commercialization may be incorporated into a Company project without appropriate approval.

8. AI-Generated Material

The Recipient shall follow Company procedures for AI-assisted development. AI-generated outputs used in Company Work Product must be reviewed for security, confidentiality, licensing, originality, accuracy and suitability. The Recipient must not represent that an AI output is automatically owned or unrestricted without appropriate review.

9. Repositories and Records

Company Work Product shall be maintained in Company-approved repositories and systems. The Recipient shall keep reasonable records of material contributions, dependencies and third-party components as required by Company procedures.

10. No Personal Commercialization

The Recipient shall not independently sell, license, publish, commercialize or otherwise exploit Company Work Product or Company product concepts without written authorization.

11. Confidentiality

All unpublished Company Work Product and related technical, business and customer information is Confidential Information and is subject to the Company's NDA and confidentiality requirements.

12. Exit Obligations

At the end of the engagement, the Recipient shall transfer current work, documentation, credentials and project materials to the Company and shall not retain unauthorized copies.

13. Independent Work

The Recipient remains free to create and use genuinely independent work that was not created for the Company, does not use Company Confidential Information, and does not improperly incorporate Company Work Product.

14. No Unlawful Restraint

Nothing in this Agreement is intended to prohibit lawful employment, profession or business activity after the engagement. The restrictions concern ownership, confidentiality and unauthorized use of Company Work Product and Confidential Information.

15. Governing Law and Jurisdiction

This Agreement shall be governed by applicable Indian law. Subject to applicable law, disputes shall be subject to the competent courts having jurisdiction at Bengaluru, Karnataka.

16. Severability and Entire Agreement

If any provision is invalid or unenforceable, the remaining provisions continue to the extent permitted by law. This Agreement should be read with the applicable employment, internship, consultancy and confidentiality documents.
